

Home - College Contract

Changing school is important to students, parents and teachers. It gives a new start. The three partners below all need to think about what they can give to each other of students are to achieve their full potential.

Teachers

- We will provide good quality teaching directed at the needs of each student.
- We will provide regular information to students and parents about progress being made.
- We will require students to behave properly and respect the rights of all students in relation to the learning environment, personal relationships and the physical environment of the college.

Students

- I will attend regularly and punctually, properly equipped to learn well.
- I will try my best to learn well and will not prevent other students from doing the same.
- I will help to take care of the attractive Westwood buildings and grounds.

Parents

- I will try to ensure that my family values learning highly.
- I will contact the college whenever doubts or problems arise which I think will affect my child's education.
- I will take an interest in what my son/daughter is doing in college and especially when important decisions have to be made.
